

THE CONVENTION.

The Feeling Among the Delegates and Visitors—A Strong Ticket and a Good Platform—The Chairman of the State Central Committee—Serenade of the Candidates.

HARRISBURG, May 17, 1871. In peace, harmony, and quietness the convention, which commenced its sitting at 12 o'clock to-day, closed its labors at 5 1/2 o'clock. With the exception of the Auditor General, there was but little interest manifested except by the immediate friends of the candidates. Indeed, up to a late hour the best wire-pullers were at sea as to who the candidates for the position of Surveyor-General would be when the convention met.

The friends of Mr. Smedley were active and in earnest, but when the name of Colonel R. B. Beach, the hero of a hundred battles, and who lost a leg in the service of his country, was announced, the feeling that he was the man for the place commenced to crop out among the delegates from the rural districts, and the aspect of affairs changed to a degree of certainty most refreshing to the Colonel's friends. Still the Philadelphians held on to their man, and succeeded in securing a little of the outside pressure. It was unavailing, however, and Beach was nominated, with nearly if not quite a full third of his vote to spare. That he will suit the people of the Commonwealth there can be no question, and now that the affair is over the delegates will write in saying that no more eminently proper and fitting choice could have been made.

The nomination of Dr. D. M. Stanton was a foregone conclusion. Foregone, because the caucus held last night had decided the question beyond the shadow of a doubt. General Allen and Mr. Hooten, his opponents, gave up the contest in a philosophical manner, but their friends stood by them in the convention, notwithstanding. In this I may observe that, contrary to the usual custom, there were no complaints or quibblings after the affair was over.

At the moment of this writing the "Unconditional Club" is tendering the nominees the compliment of a serenade. I presume that speeches will be made, but if I mistake not they will have but little influence on the men who have been here since yesterday, and have known the comfort of hanging on a hook in lieu of stretching themselves on a downy couch.

"Put me in my little bed" had considerable significance last night, because there were no "little beds" (or big ones either) to get into. This crowding was caused by the large number of delegates to the Grand Encampment of the Order of Odd Fellows. Of course, the Harrisburg hotel proprietors have done the best they could for their guests, but best is poor enough in a thing like this.

The platform laid down by the convention meets with unqualified approval, except that portion which refers to General Grant as the candidate for the Presidency in 1872. It created considerable discussion in the convention, not that Grant was not popular or anything of that kind, but because there was so much time to spare between now and the time for making the Presidential nomination. The resolution went through with a rush, though, and Grant stands to-day the unqualified choice of Pennsylvania for President in 1872.

The little resolution concerning the modest and, I may now unhesitatingly add, retiring Geary was to be expected, and no particular importance can be attached to it. By the way, his speech the other evening, when he so frankly and positively denied that he wanted an office of any kind, was the most peculiar I have ever heard him make. If the "King of English" ever had such a thing as a soul, it is crushed and torn to ribbons now, and Governor Geary is guilty of the sacrilegious crime. But no matter; he will not be dragged out (he says he don't want to be) to fill any office. Just here it occurs to me that he rather hinted that he would be induced to take the gubernatorial chair for another (third) term. "Can such things be, and o'ercome us like a summer's cloud, without our special wonder?"

The other planks in the platform are considered sound and strong. There was considerable excitement over the chairmanship of the State Central Committee, but after an hour or two had been spent in arguing pro and con in regard to the manner in which he should be appointed, his selection was left to the chairman of the convention (Mr. Elliott) and the two candidates. Up to this writing no selection has been made, although it looks as though Samuel F. Barr, Esq., of Harrisburg, would be the man. Mr. Barr is one of the smartest and shrewdest politicians in the State, and has been the private secretary of Senator Cameron for some years. But this is all surmise, and to-morrow may change the case.

The "Unconditional Club" of Philadelphia, under the leadership of the indefatigable and unconquerable William R. Leeds, has been the most prominent feature of the whole affair. Headed by Beck's Band—who, by the way, the Governor complimented very highly for their fifteen-months service in the 38th Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers—the club has been ubiquitous, and rendered every scene enjoyable by its enthusiasm and good conduct. But it waxes late, and this epistle must close. The Philadelphia delegation leaves for home to-morrow (Thursday) at 11 25 A. M. P. S.—Considerable betting was done here during this evening on the result of the coming election. Rather early, isn't it?

CITY ITEMS.

TO THE CONSUMPTIVE.—WILSON'S COMPOUND OF COD LIVER OIL AND LIME, without possessing the very nauseating flavor of the article as heretofore used, is endorsed by the phosphate of lime with a healing property, which renders the oil doubly efficacious. SPECIAL NOTICES.

A SINGLE TRIAL WILL CONVINCED THE most skeptical of the efficacy of HELMBOLD'S GRAPE PILLS in Stomach and Nervous Headache, Jaundice, Indigestion, Constipation, Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Liver Complaints, General Debility, etc. No nausea, no griping pains, no mild, pleasant and safe in operation. Children take them with impunity. They are the best and most reliable. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT SASSAPARILLA, a new, fresh, and healthy blood purifier, dispelling Pimples, Blisters, Moth Patches, and all eruptions of the skin.

AMERICAN SUNDAY-SCHOOL U. N. I. O. N.

Address will be delivered by Rev. Dr. Armitage, of New York; Rev. Dr. Harper, formerly of Indianapolis, and Rev. Dr. Newton, of this city. Singing by a choir of four hundred young ladies, under the direction of Professor G. L. B. Tickets, with secured seats, Twenty-five Cents each, may be procured at the Society's house, No. 1122 CHESTNUT STREET.

THIS IS THE SEASON OF THE YEAR

when the system should be thoroughly purged of the humors which create disease. There is no purgative or cathartic so mild and efficacious as HELMBOLD'S GRAPE PILLS, causing neither nausea or griping pains—as is the case with many cheap patent pills of the day—most of which are composed of calomel or mercury, and carelessly prepared by inexperienced persons. After thoroughly purging the system, use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT SASSAPARILLA, the Great Purifier, and they will insure new life, new blood, and renewed vigor. Try them.

NOTICE OF REMOVAL.—CORN EXCHANGE NATIONAL BANK.

As our bank building is about to be demolished, we have removed the entire system and security into the new building, where we have taken the banking room in the Chamber of Commerce Building, SECON D STREET, above Walnut, and ready to receive the business of the bank, where we are now prepared for the transaction of business.

ALL POWDERS AND OINTMENTS APPLIED

close upon the pores of the skin, rendering it harsh, coarse, and flabby, and in short time destroy the complexion. If you would have a Fresh, Healthy, Youthful and agreeable complexion, use HELMBOLD'S GRAPE PILLS and HELMBOLD'S SASSAPARILLA, which beautifies the complexion. Beware of those cheap patent pills, carelessly prepared by inexperienced persons—either calomel, mercury, or other deleterious drugs.

"THE MAN FOR THE TIMES; OR, THE CHARACTER DEMANDED BY THE AGE."

Lecture by Rev. A. A. WILLIAMS, in Rev. Dr. Dale's church, RACE STREET, near Sixteenth, on THURSDAY EVENING, May 18, at 8 o'clock. Tickets 50 cents.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT SASSAPARILLA

is the Great Blood Purifier; thoroughly cleanses and renovates the entire system, and readily enters into the circulation of the blood, after purging with HELMBOLD'S GRAPE PILLS, the foul humors that have accumulated in the system for years. Both are carefully prepared according to the rules of Pharmacy and Chemistry, and are thoroughly reliable. A test of 20 years has proved this. Try them.

IF YOU DESIRE A MILD, PLEASANT, safe, and agreeable Cathartic, which will cause neither nausea or griping pains, use Nature's remedy, HELMBOLD'S GRAPE PILLS. They are purely vegetable; their component parts being Calawa, Grape Juice and Fluid Extract Rhubarb. Should you desire a brilliant complexion, youthful appearance, new life, new blood, and renewed vigor, use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT SASSAPARILLA.
